WAKEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL ORACLE 1996

SPECIAL THANKS

The 1:45 dismissal bell is inevitably followed by a stampede of anxious students ready to go home. And when the halls have finally cleared out, a strange squeaking sound can be heard echoing through the halls . . . That sound is Johnny Moccia taking out the scuff marks in the floor, one by one.

Long after we go home, John Moccia, Mike Angelo, and the rest of the custodians remain to pick up the empty "Combos" packages we have left behind. They have done everything from shining the floors to fixing jams in the vending machines for us.

Although sometimes it may seem that their work goes unappreciated by students, the Class of 1996 would like to extend our warmest gratitude to all the custodians for cleaning up our messes, keeping the school clean, and just putting up with us for four years. And thank you, most of all, for opening our lockers when they were stuck.

DEDICATION

The graduating class of 1996 would like to dedicate this yearbook to two individuals who have made our four years at Wakefield High School special. From the time we entered as awkward freshmen, Ms. Buckley and Ms. Coppe have been there for us through fundraisers, dances, and even by keeping us under control at Senior Show rehearsals. Devoting much time and effort with our class officers, they have striven to make our four years memorable.

This spring, as we sit at graduation - a sea of red and white - and remember the time we spent in high school, we will remember our class advisors. Thank you, Ms. Buckley and Ms. Coppe, for your endless dedication to our class and for making the past four years of our lives times we will never forget.

June 1996

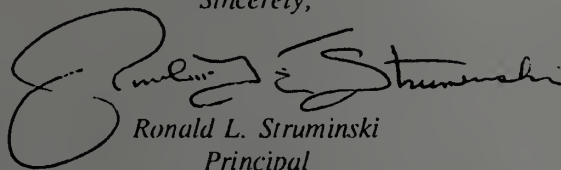

To the Class of 1996:

Congratulations on reaching the milestone of graduation. Although I have only known the members of the class for two years, I have enjoyed working with you and watching you grow physically and intellectually. You have left a legacy to those who follow with your outstanding achievements in the classroom, on the athletic fields, in the areas of music and drama, and particularly in service to the community. I am proud to have been a part of your successes.

Graduation is termed a "commencement" exercise and "commencement" is defined as "a beginning." While graduation does end your high school experience, it truly is the beginning of your adult life. I hope the lessons of respect, responsibility, and understanding are now a part of your being and that under your leadership, the world will experience peace and cooperation. Whatever your path in life, never forget the sacrifices that have been made on your behalf - especially those of your parents or guardians. Continue those sacrifices with your children and always remember: "It is better to build children than to repair men."

May all of your dreams become reality.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Struminski

It's senior year and we're finally graduating! We've shared many great times together over all the years. Now, it's time to go off on our separate ways. What we've learned and experienced in high school will be a foundation for our future, wherever we go, whatever we do. When we reflect on our years at WHS, there will always be those special teachers, friends, and memorable times that we will remember especially well. Now that our high school years are about to end, congratulations and good luck to all the seniors in the future!

FACES TO REMEMBER

Have you ever found yourself saying, "Hey, I wonder whatever happened to her . . ." or "Gosh, he hasn't been in English all year."?

Well, the Class of 1996 has suffered some losses over the past years, with students who have moved or changed schools. Since we could not include everyone, here are just a few of the faces that perhaps you have not seen in a while . . .

Pete Morriveau and friends.

Jessica Saulnier and Moya.

Nida Kirmani and Nikki

Matt Santosuaso and Matt.

Steven Mecurio, Matt Diccio, and Brian.

FACES TO REMEMBER

Sonya Collura and Chandra.

Rob and Tom Beaudoin.

Erika McDonald and Liz.

Andrea Giuffre, Jess, and Alana Fredette.

Emerald and Emily Wilcox.

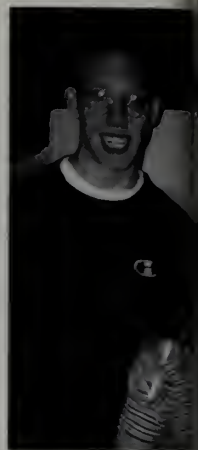

Alissa and Liz Caffrey.

Ryan Welch and friends.

Kelley & the joker.

Hooked on Phonics worked for me!

Oops!

Coach Kelly said to hike to Breakheart, not Hampton!

"Life moves pretty fast.
If you don't stop to look around once in a while, you might miss it."
-Ferris Bueller
"Ferris Bueller's Day Off."

Hey Andy, shouldn't we be in school?

FROM START TO finish

The cool, chic Ken.

"Wherever we go, whatever we do.
We're gonna get through it together."

The bus.

Human experiments gone wrong.

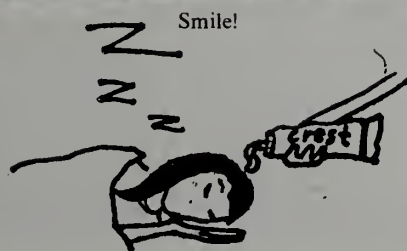

Skip day festivities.

"MEET RONALD STRUMINSKI"

...read the headline in the Wakefield Observer. As the summer days wound down and we prepared for our junior year, we also prepared for the new principal. Providing a stark contrast to the "Osborne years," our new principal tried to get to know the students, tried to raise school spirit, and even picked up litter from the floor. And on top of all this, he's a great math teacher... oh wait - that's Mr. Neale.

Well, with every administration comes change, and this administration was no different. More prevalent this year than last, the changes evoked complaints from more than a few students. "Reform" was written on every disgruntled face in the hall. It was in the eyes of every student who ever said, "What do you mean there's no homeroom?"

And so we faced our first problem. Without homeroom, when would we do our homework? And the list does not end there...

- As loud as Alexis is, she can't compete with 20 kids in cafe study screaming out demands for bagels and cream cheese. Those announcements just don't get heard.
- Somehow, those extra five minutes tacked on to each block seem like a little more than five minutes. Can we get those clocks checked?
- Whatever happened to the glorious "locker/lav break?" Now, the only time to go to the lav is during our lunch time, which leads us to...
- The ten minute lunch. Forget socializing, forget talking with friends. Actually, don't bother taking your backpack off. Inhale your food and move on to whichever 1/3 of E block you have left.
- The unnecessarily arduous process of getting a "late pass" in the office. While the secretaries work through some strangely complicated computer work, you have to weave through three different lines. By the time you get out of the office, it is already lunch time; half the day is gone and realization hits that it probably would have been better to have stayed at home.

WHS ROAD RULES

Granted there are no Massachusetts States to enforce traffic laws in this rat maze we call Dear Wakefield High, but since when was it acceptable to travel on the left side of the hallway (except for when walking backwards)? It defies logic. There are always some freshmen and a few stubborn seniors whose train of thought runs something like this:

"Hmm. Travel on the right side - move smoothly with crowd. Travel on left - get trampled, cause riot. Hey, I slept through English, I'm up for a challenge. I'll take the left side for $100, Alex!"

Even more irritating than the Almighty Defiers of Logic are the students who decide to form a chorus line with their friends and meander slowly down the corridor. And just when you go to dart through the space between the walls of the building and the "Berlin Wall of Slow Moving Humans," you are pinned by one student who was magnetically drawn to the wall and then has the nerve to look at you as if to say:

"Duh, don't you know how to walk?" At which point I would most likely respond, "Listen Laverne, take Shirley and do your little kick dance somewhere else, I have to get to math!"

And the last, but certainly not the least annoying is the "stop dead in your tracks and form a barricade" genre of high school traffic violators. A note to these students: There is this new theory called the domino effect...read up on it. It might help to explain why when you come to a standstill, several students behind you collide to the floor and take you down with them. So listen Mr. or Ms., "I am a rock, I am an i-i-i-island," do us all a favor: keep it movin' sweetheart!

Oh, and a footnote to all those who want to keep their head, face, neck and shoulders in tact: avoid large backpack-toting freshmen. They can be fatal if you are closer than 100 ft behind them when they turn a corner.

CLASS of 1996

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS AT WHS

"The first time driving my car, I was so excited that I decided to drive to school for drama that night. I knew that my boyfriend and his friends were going to the basketball game at the field house so I drove down to see them. On my way out of the parking lot, I got stuck in ice! I was so embarrassed. I was there for twenty minutes and nobody could pass me! Finally, my boyfriend had to knock on the window and tell me to back up and then go up the hill."

"I went out to dinner with my boyfriend for his 17th birthday. I was really nervous because I was meeting his parents for the first time. Even worse, I was just recovering from a bad cold. Halfway through the meal, I realized I had to sneeze. I tried to stop myself but I wasn't in time and I ended up sneezing all over my boyfriend's dad's food! I haven't been able to face his family since then."

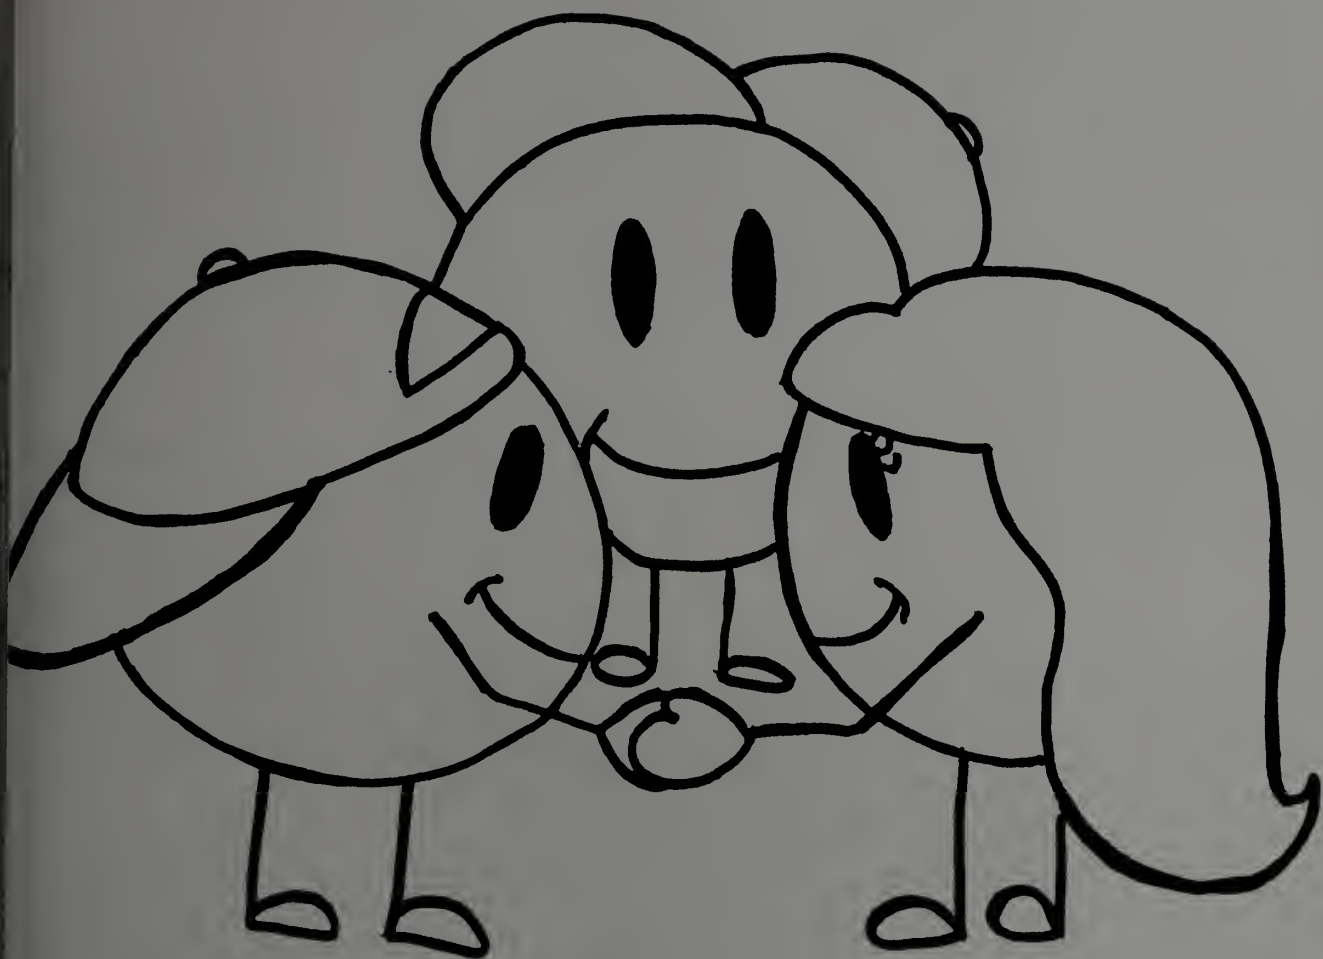

"My freshman year, I was walking up the stairs to Crash Corner, and this senior I liked was coming down. I turned to say 'hi' to him, and I fell down the stairs! Not only did he think I was a klutz, but it was also in front of the video yearbook man and my skirt went up!"

"My most embarrassing moment was when I was walking to lunch with two of my friends. I guess I wasn't paying much attention because I tripped on the stairs. As if that wasn't bad enough, on my down, I grabbed my friend's butt so I wouldn't fall!"

"At my boyfriend's junior prom, I had been dancing for a very long time. I decided to head over to the refreshment table to get some punch. Someone must have spilled their drink and one must have cleaned it up. I slipped, fell, and landed my butt in the puddle. For the rest of the evening, I tried to hide the big wet spot on the back of my dress!"

"During school one day, I was walking down the math hall with my best friend when this guy I had a major crush on waved to me from a classroom. I was so surprised that I stopped suddenly; so me and sent my friend crashing into everywhere!"

Football

This year's football team ended with a 9-1 record resulting in the best season since 1989. The season started off great with three straight shutouts against Revere, Stoneham, and Lexington. There was a streak of 22 consecutive shutout quarters dating back to last year's Burlington game. The Warriors won their next five games, recording shutouts against Woburn and Burlington. Then the Warriors ran into the Reading Rockets, another undefeated team at the time and Wakefield came up short losing the game 6-4 in the "Game Of The Year" along with and the Middlesex League Title. The whole team played their hearts out and at the end, all the players were proud of the effort they put forth. The team then went into the traditional Thanksgiving game against Melrose and pulled out of a hard victory of 28-27.

Seven players were named to the Middlesex League All-Star Team starting with Co-captains John Pace and Brian Callanan, Evan Knight, Tom Sibley, Rob Cataldo and Jason Farrell who was named MVP of the league and a member of the Boston Globe and Herald's All-Scholastic teams. He and John Pace also made Division 2 All-Stars.

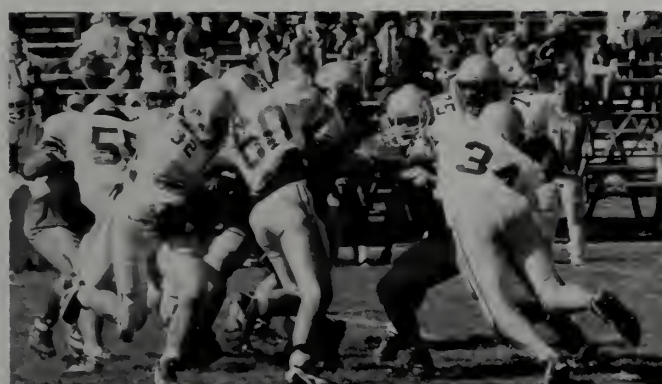

The Warriors had a great season this year. Good luck to next year's team.

Boys Soccer

Led by Co-Captains Amo Cefalo and Mike Marnon, the Warrior Soccer Team achieved a record of 5-6-7. With the loss of 13 seniors from the 1994 team, not much was expected from the young 1995 team. Surprising many opponents, the Warriors played with a lot of heart, missing the tournament by only one point. Some of the highlights of the season were the 1-1 tie to the #1 placed team, the Winchester Sachems, and the 4-0 victory over Belmont.

The All-Stars on the team were Amo Cefalo and Mike Coughlin, with Andrew Conley, Mike Ludlow and Wes Connelly receiving Honorable Mention. This team, comprised of 5 seniors, was much better than its record showed. All members played aggressively with discipline and pride.

Row 1: J. Pavey, G. Ericksen, M. Marnon, A. Cefalo, P. Najim, S. Hochberg Row 2: M. Ludlow, C. MacDonald, C. Cappoccia, S. Skulley, N. Shevlin, S. Hamelin, M. Russo, W. Connelly Row 3: A. Girls Soccer

The 1995 Girls Soccer Team was led by Tri-Captains Kristine Young, Bridget Doherty, and Liz Somers. New head coach Meg McKenna helped the team post a 7-11 season.

Elected Middlesex League All Stars were Andrea Encarnacao and Carrie Price with Honorable Mention going to Kristine Young, Jen Shevlin, and Melissa Doyle. The team was recognized for its spirit and unity i.e. J and A!! Good luck to the 1996 team.

Boys Cross Country

The 1995 Boys Cross Country team had yet another successful season finishing with a record of 6-3. The team was lead by Tri-Captains Matthew Lyons, Brian Matthews, and Joshua Colson. The team had two All-Stars, Matthew Lyons and Shaun LaCava. Strong performances by Matthew Tibbets, Scott Lahey, Ryan Ellis, and Shawn Wallace added to the team's success.

In the post-season, the Warriors took second place at the league meet. The team had finishers in the top ten: A first place finish by Matthew Lyons, a sixth from Shaun LaCava, and tenth from Shawn Wallace. The team finished sixth at states with Lyons and Wallace moving on to the All-State Meet.

Girls Cross Country

The 1995 Girls Cross Country team finished the season with a record of 1-8. The young team had five new runners, but with the help of three returning veterans, Tri-Captains Cheri Fabrizio, Alyson Dishino, and Dawn McNerney, the team showed improvement and eventually beat Melrose. Amanda LaPerche, Anna Spear, Sarah MacLean, Gina Person and Merrill Stead were welcomed newcomers.

Although they only had one win, many victories were achieved through teamwork and the dedication of everyone. It was a truly unforgettable season.

Golf Team

GOLF TEAM "95"

The 1995 edition of the Wakefield High School Golf Team (1-7-2, overall) had a very competitive season in the Middlesex League, although their record did not reflect it. The young team was led by four seniors who competed well all year long. Co-Captains Josh Ferguson and Kevin Sullivan made the Middlesex League All-Star team while the two other seniors, Matt Doyle and Jeff Pitman, showed leadership throughout the season with their great playing.

Juniors Brendan Doucette and Jim Beats and sophomore Darren Bisso all participated and won matches for the team this year with first-year player Bisso making second-team All-Star. These three will be the leaders of next year's more experienced team.

One of the high points of the year was the team's trying match against Belmont. It came down to the final four-some when Jeff Pitman two-putted from fifty feet away to seal the come-from-behind tie.

Next year, Coach Dave Tropeano's squad will be far more experienced and expectations will be high. Coach Trop returns nine varsity letterman next year, all of whom gained match experience this year. Yes, Wakefield will be a team to be reckoned with in the future.

Perfect form, Matt Doyle!

Field Hockey

The 1995 Field Hockey team proved they were a team to contend with this year in the Middlesex League. After four years of hard work and determination, the seniors lifted the team from last place to fifth place with a record of 7-10-1.

Tri-captains Kristin McCarthy, Diane Disanto, and All Star Kelly Tierney along with seniors Jen Manley, Andrea Geaney, Rae Munroe, Alexis Pushcar and Teresa Sardillo will never forget how they took the league by surprise with a huge wins over Reading and Melrose. We will always remember those crazy bus rides home, Bentley campus, Breakheart, pasta parties, night games at Landrigan, Indian sprints, suicides, and coach's toilet-papered house.

Hey Guys! Where's chicken? Geaney get up! Get fatty Munroe in the goal! Lex—I think there's a worm in your hair. Murph! 2 saves! Chill, "T". Jen, what's the latest news? Look, there's Paris! Tell Kelly to stop hitting Diane.

The seniors had a wonderful four years and an amazing season to finish it off. Good luck to the varsity team next year. We'll miss you guys. Thanks again, Coach. These "comeback kids" always "refuse to lose."

Swimming

With four wins and only five losses (four more wins than last season) the 1995 season was great. The five seniors made a big splash. Crissy Lowry and Mellisa Scott were great assets to the team. Captains Jillian Wetmore and Jessica Wiley did well with their relays as well as their individuals events. Kelly Melton captured the league diving title, along with the State Title again. Coaches Bryne and Corrigan were very excited about this season.

Fall 1995 was a little colder than previous years, and morning practices were definitely torture, but beating Melrose made it all worth it! Riding to Sectionals was always exciting, but this year the bus' broken tire was the best. The State Cup was great and the States should be exciting.

Majorettes

This year's Majorette were led by Captain Danielle Croteau. With the help of their new coach, the newly formed squad performed their intricate routines to perfection. Spirit and pride were evident at all of the football games and the girls' enthusiasm was greatly appreciated and will always be remembered. Good luck to next year's team!

Fall Cheerleading

This year was an exciting one for the Fall Cheerleaders. Led by Captains Kate Morgan, Amanda Kelley, and Lauren Giampa, the team accomplished many things that were once thought impossible. Everyone enjoyed the season, especially the seniors, who would like to wish all the underclassmen good luck next year. A very special thanks goes out to first year advisor, Kelly Dwyer, for all her help and support.

Pom Pons

The Pom Pon Squad was led by Captains Krissy Hurley, Monica Wilson, and Stephanie Williams, with the help of senior Jodi Silver. This year was a very memorable one for the '95' Pom Pon Dance Team.

Who could forget camp, especially with all those Spirit Sticks! Never forget double sessions, sprinklers, circle meetings, recycle dances, work it, work it, work it, hold on wait a minute . . .

Thanks, Stacey, and the rest of the team, for a very memorable season! Good luck next year!

MARCHING BAND

The 1995-96 season is over and we kicked some major bum! First place at Biddeford, ME; nearly all 5 stars at MICA Wakefield; and straight 5-stars at States in Framingham. Of course it never could have happened without Matt, Doug, Tim, Emerald, Paul, Casey, Carol, and Anne but the band did it! Marching Band Olympics, Beach Party, and some of those parties were good resting times which got us psyched up to compete. Everybody like changing on the bus? Sure you do. Thanks Jim, Dave, Randy, Maureen, Mary, and of course Ms. Smith. Hey! Where's Brian?! It's been fun and 3/4 of us will see you next year!

FALL SPORTS IN REVIEW

BEST THINGS ABOUT BEING A SENIOR:

- ACTIVITIES - Yes, you remember all those great times you had running for track or camping out in the music hall. Best of all, seniority rules in nearly all extracurricular activities. You can just sit back and enjoy all the benefits while shoving the scrub work off on some freshman.
- THE SENIOR SHOW - Our chance to comment on how we see some of the more humorous aspects of high school life. Who can forget Doyle and Cefalo in dresses and heels! Then there's that infamous Saturday night party that left its lingering effects well into the following days...
- THE SCAVENGER HUNT - Manhole? What manhole?!
- "SENIORITIS" - Symptoms include a complete disregard for homework, fidgeting, and excessive chattiness. Fortunately, most teachers are understanding, especially during third and fourth terms.
- GRADUATION - The beautiful ceremony, the somber procession, the boring party your parents will throw for you, and finally, the great party you and your friends will throw for yourselves!
- SENIORITY - It's all about respect. We get it; the freshmen don't. Need I say more?
- FREEDOM - Finally, the freedom that comes with age and experience. Unfortunately, freedom comes attached to responsibility.
- SENIOR PROM - By far the most talked about event of the year. Let's face it, finding the perfect date, the perfect dress/tux and the perfect limo on a budget of $32.50 is pretty stressful.
- CAFE STUDY - The greatest of senior privileges, and the one that's soon to be history. (Oh, you guys won't have any studies soon. Sorry, kids.)
- GETTING OUT - High school is finally over and you survived!

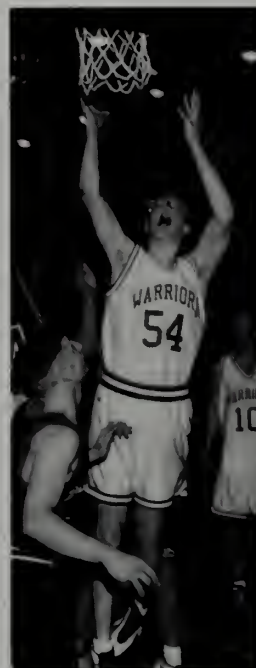

Boys Basketball

This year's Varsity basketball team was led by Co-captains Andy Ward and John Hurley. The other seniors on the team included Brendan Fitzgerald, Jason Pavey, Dana D'Agostino, Eric Otenti, and Drew McInnis. Together with the underclassmen, they all did their fair share of the work to make their season a successful one.

The team finished in second place in the Middlesex League with a record of 14-4 and 18-6 overall. The team then went on to win the Division II North Championship - the first team to do this in almost ten years. They were also the first team to play at the new Fleet Center for the Eastern Massachusetts Championship. The seniors' excellent leadership skills were a major component of their success this year. In all, what this team accomplished was more than what many people ever expected. Good luck to next year's team.

Girls Basketball

The 1995-96 Lady Warriors took much of the Middlesex League by surprise this season by jumping out to a perfect 6-0 record at the Christmas break. After losing 5 seniors to graduation, this small, close-knit team proved that it would not be denied the respect that it deserved. With much hard work and determination, the Lady Warriors, led by Captains Kristin McCarthy, Bridget Doherty, and Kristine Young, along with fellow seniors Erin Morrison and Andrea Geaney, had a final record of 14-4. The team finished third in the Middlesex League. Junior Angela Botticelli earned All-League honors while Bridget Doherty and Kristin McCarthy joined her on the All-Star team.

The friendship and support existing between every member of the team was unlike that of any previous one. Their commitment to each other, along with their desire to succeed, drove them to exceed all expectations except their own. The 1995-96 Lady Warriors proved that "the best team doesn't win nearly enough as the team that gets along the best." Thanks for everything Coach Grutchfield, McKenna, Borgeal, and Sheeran! Keep the tradition growing! Oh ya!!

Boys Indoor Track

Much to the surprise of many, the boys indoor track finished with an 8-1 record. With excellent seniors and a solid underclass, the team improved their record from last year's 6-3. The league's most powerful brother duo of Tri-captain Matt Lyons and his twin brother Tim amassed more than their share of points. Tri-captain Ken Spizuoco had a solid year in the 300 and 600, capping off his year with an 8th place finish in the state meet. Al Lim and Al Bakarr led Wakefield in the dash, one of the team's most solid events. Tri-captain Josh Colson had an excellent season in the mile as did Mike Marnon in the 600 and 1000. Coach John DiComandrea once again displayed his renowned coaching ability this year. He hopes to show a solid team for next year's season.

Girls Indoor Track

The Girls Indoor Track Team had an exciting season this year. The team was led by Co-captains Jenn Shea and Anita Daryanani. Although the team's record of 3-6 was not great, the girls worked well together and improved over the season. This year's seniors were Anita Daryanani, Missa Emero, Cheri Fabrizio, Kim Geier, Jen Majeski, and Jenn Shea. All of them will be missed next year. The team would like to thank Sarah Judge, the manager, for all her hard work. The team will never forget the Dome, State Relays, Mr. Duff's speeches, the bus rides, and Fallica's relay stunt.

Wrestling

The Wakefield wrestling program has improved greatly this year. This season, we finished with our best record ever: 16-2-1. Our coach, Ross Ickes, was one vote shy of receiving the Coach of the Year Award. The team captains were Dan Carroll, Chris Carroll, Joe Mauro, and Mike Guisto (Poop Guisto). Other seniors included Brian Matthews, Darrell Tenaglia, and Barry Petrucci. These members were great assets to the entire team. All the seniors would like to thank Coach Ikes as well as Deric Valley for their time and effort towards the team. We would also like to congratulate them on a phenomenal year and would like to wish them luck in the years to come.

Gymnastics

MIDDLESEX LEAGUE CHAMPS 1994-95, 1995-96! This year's team was led by Regina McKennon and Rachael Ciarlante! "EEEEAAW!" It was a great season this year with first year coaches Lisa Plavin and Liz Steadman. The team wouldn't be where it was without them. Congratulations to Rachael Ciarlante for receiving the Globe All-Scholastic Award as well as making it to States with teammate Gina Coscia! Good luck to everyone on the team next year! Keep the 'tudes alive!

Hockey

The 1995-96 Warrior hockey team had another successful season under Coach McCarthy who led them to an overall record of 14-5-2. An early exit from the tournament at the hands of Billerica was an unexpected disappointment. However, a win against an undefeated Woburn team, a come from behind tie versus Burlington, and a win over rival Melrose were highlights of the season. The Warriors were led by seniors Pete Najim, All-Star Rob Cataldo, Jeff Pitman, Pat Nigro, Mike McNeil, and Co-captains Garrett Mahoney and League MVP Mike Souza. The team had four very successful years at WHS. Over the past three years, the Warriors compiled a record of 54-11-7 and had a trip to the Garden in the State Semi-finals. They had a great time and wish future teams luck.

Winter Cheerleading

Under the direction of first year coach Kelly Dwyer, the cheerleaders practiced for many hours this season to develop routines and coordinate movements. Led by captains Kate Morgan, Lauren Giampa, and Armanda Kelly and seniors Courtney Yentile, Lea Hadley, Melissa Waystack, Jenn Crotty, Suzanne Carrier, Mairead Walsh, and Jodi Silver, we made a lot of progress over the season. We had a lot of fun times together at practices, basketball games, hockey games and at the Harvard Basketball Tournament. We also supported the basketball and hockey teams in the State Tournament this season. We wish the best of luck to our coach and future teams.

Swimming

A cooperative swim team was formed this year between Northeast Metropolitan Regional Vocational School and Wakefield High School. The WHS Warriors and the Northeast Knights joined together this year thanks to the efforts of Dr. Paula Mullen, Mr. Barry Haley and NE coach Mr. Vin Adamoyourka. The 95-96 winter season was the first of a two year trial period worked out between the MIAA and the two schools. This unique partnership helped link together the two schools who up until now had no athletic ties. Competing in the Commonwealth Athletic Conference, the swimmers posted a solid 7-4 record.

MICHAEL BLAIS

Climb every mountain and reach for the stars. All of your dreams and goals are attainable because everything is possible with love, and always, you are loved.

We will always be proud of you!

Much love, Mom, Dad, Christopher and Mike-y

Oh - it just seems like yesterday that you were starting school. I remember that day so clearly. You were so excited about going to school with all your neighborhood friends. It didn't take long for you to acquire "quite a few" more friendships along the way.

May you always treasure all the memories, and lasting friendships that you had in school and continue that even beyond.

*Dad and I are so very proud of you and we wish you much happiness and success in whatever you decide to do. We know that whatever you choose to do, you will be very successful, because you have that determination it takes to succeed. GOOD LUCK & LOTS OF HAPPINESS!

LOVE, Mom and Dad

RACHEL DOLE

Rachel, congratulations on all you have accomplished. Remember to follow your dreams and always reach for the stars. We love you forever.

Dad, Mom, Noney, Noppy, Grandma, Grandpa and Greg

LAUREN GIAMPA

Where has all the time gone? Seems like only yesterday I was holding your hand and chasing all the bad things away. This is one of those happy-sad days. If we could have kept you a little girl forever we would have. Thanks for all the wonderful memories and proud moments you've given us. Hold on to your dreams and reach for the stars! We're so proud of you! Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, Michelle, and Sean

P.S. "We will love you forever."

MARJA AND HILLARY CUTTER

You have always been the light of our lives and we are so proud of your many accomplishments. Now is the time for you to spread your wings and follow your dreams.

All our love, Mom and Dad

MICHAEL PERRONE

MIKE,

When you were a little boy, you had so many big dreams. Now it's time to start making those dreams come true.

We believe in you.

MELISSA EMERO

Ree,

It's here, the day you've been waiting for. There are so many things we could fill this page with. You've worked hard to create the opportunities that lie ahead for you. A lot of times we watched you struggle with things— you always wanted to take care of things your way. We are so proud of the choices you've made, the friends you've chosen and the lives you've touched. You've given us such incredible memories (soccer, track, WPD and many others.) Thanks for being such a blessing to our lives and we know that the best is yet to come for you.

We love you to the moon
Mom, Dad, Dan and Max
